

The President's Award

This award was established so that each year the President and the Executive Committee would have the opportunity to recognize an individual for outstanding service to the Academy and the field of pathology. The award is conferred at the sole discretion of the President without requirement for it to be given annually. It is presented during the USCAP Annual Meeting. The awardee is introduced by the President and receives a commemorative statue.

Selection Process:

The President nominates an awardee during his or her term as President. This nomination is submitted for approval to the Executive Committee at the time of the Interim Meeting (or earlier).

The Academy Provides:

- Economy class round trip airfare or ground transportation at $0.545/mile (IRS 2018 rate)
- Hotel accommodations (all nights, single or double occupancy) on master account
- Incidentals
- Per diem up to $75 for meals (receipts required)
- General registration
